

The Sound of Toastmasters

November 16-17-18, 2007

WHAT IS WAITING YOU...

Chris Ford,

International President, DTM

M. Ford's theme for his term in office is "Toastmasters: Shaping Ourselves... Shaping Our World."

Chris Ford of Casselman, Ontario Canada, has been elected President of Toastmasters International. He is the top officer of the world's leading organization devoted to teaching skills in communication and leadership. An active Toastmaster for over 25 years, M. Ford is a retired Canadian Forces brigadier-general. He is currently employed as the Director General of Alternative Dispute Resolution for the Canadian Department of National Defence, where he makes good use of the communication and leadership skills he has honed in Toastmasters. "Toastmasters International is full of people who have achieved results beyond their wildest dreams, and who are making a real difference in their world," says M. Ford. "We help people gain the skills and confidence to be the best they can be in whatever they choose to do." As a result, Ford's theme for his term in office is "Toastmasters: Shaping Ourselves... Shaping Our World."

To know more, assist:

KEYNOTE SPEECH :

Sunday, Nov. 18 at 8:00 AM -> « Getting in shape and staying in shape »

Communication and Leadership award

Recognized in 2006 as one of Canada's 100 most powerful women by Toronto's Women's Executive Network, Nicole Beaudoin excels in both business and human relationships. She is a respected leader, an enthusiastic advocate of networking and a popular speaker, making a remarkable contribution to the cause of women's advancement in Quebec and throughout the world.

As President and CEO of two networks devoted to the success of businesswomen (the Quebec Business Women's Network and the Women Entrepreneurial Center of Quebec), she maintains links with many women's groups in North America, Europe, Asia and Africa and organizes trade missions, in particular to Africa. Meet an outstanding speaker.

Nicole Beaudoin,

President-CEO
RFAQ

Dear Toastmasters member,

The District 61 Fall Conference will be held in 2 weeks and it is time to make your reservations for the Sound of Toastmasters at Mont-Tremblant. Please note there are no more rooms at the Tour des Voyageurs at $115.00. We encourage you to SHARE a room at $159.00. To reserve, the procedure is the same, same phone number, same group number. <http://www.toastmastersconference.com/fall/2007/english/accomodations.html>

REGISTER NOW...

IMPORTANT

Registration deadline
NOVEMBER 14TH, 2007
by PayPal, November 10th, 2007.

<http://www.toastmastersconference.com/fall/2007/english/inscriptionE.html>

VIENNESE BALL

Saturday starting at 6:45 PM

A big reception will be held in the honour of the district. A fabulous banquet followed by a Viennese ball where people could dress up or simply wear a white accessory. Picture the evening, white as far as the eye can see, as winter at Mont-Tremblant. An evening not to be missed!

<http://www.toastmastersconference.com/fall/2007/english/workshops.html>

Friday, November 16th, 2007

8:00 – 8:45 PM Energize (Ed Tate, 2000 World Champion of Public Speaking)

Saturday, November 17th, 2007

8 :45 – 9 :30 AM How to connect with any audience every time (Ed Tate, 2000 World Champion of Public Speaking)

Sunday, November 18th, 2007

8 :00-9 :00 AM Getting in shape and staying in shape (Chris Ford, international president, DTM)

